Note:

Your name will be posted to the Editors' list after the chairs' confirmation. Please remember, review is the most important collaboration of the editor.

Editor's Duty:

If editors don't give reviews in time, or If editors give an insincere review (just 1-3 lines of comments or a review without any comments), the system will send 1-2 times(s) of reminding mail.

But if you don't give proper reviews even after several times of reminding mails, your editorship will be suspended and not appear in the editor's list, which means your editorship is no longer valid.
