

No charges are applicable if the corresponding author wants to withdraw the manuscript during the initial stages of review. A 100 USD processing fee is applicable if the corresponding author wants to cancel the publication after the review. The corresponding author should pay a 200 USD processing fee when the corresponding author wants to cancel or withdraw the publication after producing the galley proof.

Manuscript cancellation charges are utilized to cover the different costs incurred for the publication of the manuscript.